1. [REDACTED] convention of the Moslem Democratic Union met at a guerrilla-controlled village in Western Thrace. More than one hundred Moslem representatives from all Thrace participated.
2. Comrade Solu Hussein was the chief speaker. Representatives from other areas also spoke and gave lectures on various subjects, chiefly abusing and slandering the Greek Government and its agencies.
3. At the end of the convention a program for the Moslem Democratic Union was drafted and approved. A proclamation to the Moslem people was issued, and a telegram of greetings was sent to the Provisional Democratic Government, the Democratic Army of Greece, and the General Headquarters. The telegram promised that the people of the Turkish minority would fight on the side of the guerrillas.
